

“My background in customer service has taught me that people want to be heard, not just listened to. I take pride in helping them feel comfortable and in assuring them that their best interests are our top priority.”

THE HURLEY'S...LOVING LIFE!

Trudy started with Prosperity in May 2011 but has been a client since 1996. The chance to work with so many great people, including her sister Stasha Case, was an opportunity too good to pass up. Trudy has a BFA in Theatre/Voice from the University of Kansas which gave her great “think on your feet” preparation. She takes great satisfaction in making sure clients feel they are being heard and that their needs are met.

Trudy returned to the Kansas City area from New York in 1996 with her husband, Paul. They love to spend their summer weekends on their boat with daughter, Lauryn. Trudy and Lauryn share a love of performing on stage and Paul is an ardent and appreciative audience member!
